

MORE BODIES HAVE BEEN FOUND NEAR JORDAN

BODIES WERE FRIGHTFULLY
MANGLED AND TORN FROM BLOWS.

BODIE, Cal., March 16.—Four more bodies of the unfortunate crew of men who lost their lives in the snowslide at Jordan have been found. All of the bodies were frightfully mangled and torn from the blows that they had undergone in being whirled along by the rock-filled slide. The names of the men whose bodies were found have not been learned as yet.

Over four acres of ground are covered with the vast amount of snow that slid from the mountains above, and this is packed as hard as ice. The searching parties are sinking holes in this mass every few feet and by this means that hunting for the remaining bodies is difficult.

Dr. Krebs reached the Conway ranch from this place at a late hour last Saturday night, making the trip on snowshoes from Bodie. He found Mrs. Mason sitting up and doing very well, although still in a weakened condition, and sorrowing over the death of her husband and friends. She states that her husband was dead within twenty minutes after they were buried by the slide, and that the long hours with his body beside her and she herself expecting death at any time, was the most frightful she ever spent in her life.

She has informed the searching party where it would be most likely to find the bodies of the men that were swept away and she holds to the idea that there is still a possibility of some of the men being alive, buried in their cabin as she was buried with her husband.

The searchers believe that they have been able to locate the body of Knowlton near the power plant in Lundy. The searchers have located the east wall of the wrecked power plant in Lundy and are digging down to reach the foundation of the building believing that Knowlton's body is lying among the machinery.

Nothing has been found of the body of Parrot or Christianson and owing to the severity of the weather in that locality it has been almost impossible to search for the missing man.

Owing to the fact but that a single telephone wire runs into this section at present and that in poor working shape, it is very hard to get news out. The men who are breaking the road from Bodie to Jordan and Lundy are making fair headway at present. The weather has cleared up and it is believed that the danger of further snowslides has passed for the present. There is six feet of snow on the level at Mono lake, which is more than was ever known in that section before.

BE A BOOSTER.

Do you know there's lot o' people
Settin' round in every town,
Growin' like a broody chicken,
Knocking every good thing down?
Don't you be that kind o' poultry,
'Cause they ain't no good on earth;
Just be a booster rooster,
Crow and boost for all you're worth
If your town needs boostin' booster,
Don't hold back to wait and see,
If some other feller's willin'—
Sail right in, this country's free;
No one's got a mortgage on it,
It's yours just as much as his,
If your town is shy of boosters,
Just get in the booster biz.
If things just don't seem to suit you,
And the world seems kind of wrong,
What's the matter with a boostin'
Just to help the thing along?
'Cause if things should quit a-going
We'd be in a sorry plight
Keep that horn of yours a-blowin'
Boost her up with all your might.

The question of an eastern magazine: "Why is an express company?" is not so many, particularly if you live in this part of the Golden state. It is principally to prevent you from accumulating too big a bank account or having to lose sleep over taking care of your surplus. The philanthropists at the head of these institutions take all that upon themselves.

HOW OVERLAND LIMITED ROBBERS WERE CAUGHT

ARREST OF MEN IN MICHIGAN
HAS CREATED CONSIDER-ABLE INTEREST.

The Elko Independent of Monday has the following of the train robbers arrested at Palms, Mich.: "The arrest of two men in Michigan last week, charged with holding up train No. 1, the Overland Limited, at Rees, Utah, on January 2, created considerable interest here. Through the courtesy of W. G. Dawe, we are able to give the particulars of the arrest as told by the Deekerville Recorder, published at Deekerville, Sanilac county, Mich., in its issue of March 10. The Recorder is published near the home of the accused men and the following account is doubtless correct:

"Victor Clor, Jr., and Bryan O'Hara of Palms are under arrest charged with the murder of a negro porter on a Southern Pacific train at Rees, Utah, on January 2, at which time the suspects are said to have relieved the passengers of about $1400 in money and a quantity of jewelry estimated at $1603. "Ever since the daring hold-up on January 2, eight Pinkerton detectives have been working on the case and for the past three weeks members of the detective force have been in company with Clor in Detroit, while another has been shadowing O'Hara at his home in Palms.

"One day last week the detective representing himself as a real estate man, called at the O'Hara home looking for a farm. Monday morning the detective visited the O'Hara home and informed him that he had located a buyer for the farm and requested him to be at home at 11:30 o'clock to meet the prospective purchaser and then left. "About 11:30 Sheriff Graham and another detective called at the farm and inquired for a real estate man whom they represented as an embezzler, and asked O'Hara if he would go with them to assist in identifying the man. O'Hara consented, and they drove to Palms in search for him. Entering the hotel at Palms young O'Hara was brought face to face with Engineer Rouse and Conductor Middleton, of the Southern Pacific train. As soon as O'Hara saw his accusers he made a bolt for liberty, but every exit was covered by an officer, and O'Hara was ordered to throw up his hands. He was positively identified by the train men and hurriedly taken to the county jail at Sandusky. Immediately after his arrest Detective Burns communicated with the officers who were shadowing Clor and he was taken into custody at Mt. Clemens, where he was jailed.

"O'Hara was taken before Justice Allen at Sandusky and underwent a severe sweating, admitting that he was at a place called Bingham canyon, Utah, 30 miles from the scene of the holdup of January 2, but denied all knowledge of the affair. The Utah authorities were immediately informed of the arrests and an officer is speeding to Michigan to claim the prisoners.

"It is said that members of the detective force have been in close touch with the suspects for weeks, one of them being a constant companion and room-mate of Clor in Detroit for weeks. The men are of very respectable families and their arrest on so serious a charge is causing the most intense excitement. O'Hara has a widowed mother who is confined to her home, one mile north of Palms, with a broken arm."

NOTES FROM MANHATTAN

The following mining news is clipped from the Manhattan Mail of Saturday, and shows the latest developments in that section:

Superintendent McCarthy, of the Little Gray, returned Saturday evening from Goldfield, where he placed an order for a three-drill compressor and a No. 5 Cameron pump. These will be installed immediately upon their arrival, when development may be expected to hum, and action obtained upon the ore already blocked out in the property.

D. R. Finlayson was an arrival last Wednesday evening from Reno. The gentleman is here to take charge of the War Eagle mill, and entered upon his duties the day after his arrival. Mr. Finlayson was, for a considerable period, connected with the mill of the Consolidated company at Goldfield, and comes to Manhattan with an excellent reputation for ability in his work.

BENNER CASE WINS SUIT FROM POWER COMPANY

The jury in the Benner case, which was out for several hours, brought in a verdict last evening in favor of the defendant in the sum of $7500. This amount was a judgment against the Truckee River General Electric Light company for the death of Clarence Benner, who was electrocuted by the company's wires about a year ago, while in the employ of the Butler company.
